Community Development

Community development is the cornerstone of CLWR's work. Its success is measured over the span of months and years as communities are equipped to address hunger, thirst, disease, illiteracy, inequality and more.

CLWR, with your support, is helping communities in Latin America, Africa and India by building knowledge and skills in areas such as agriculture, gender equality, good governance, health care and business development.

Helping Refugees

Canadian Lutheran World Relief (CLWR) works with Lutheran groups across the country to help refugees build a new life in Canada. In 2008-09, 38 refugees were resettled in Canada as part of this program. These included Fatima Noori and her son Kareem Noori who came to Canada in February 2009 from Afghanistan via Pakistan. They are settling in well in their new home in Scarborough, Ontario, where Kareem is working full-time at a meat market and attends English language classes in the evenings while his mother takes English classes during the day.

LEARN

We Care Program

The season of Lent is a time for fasting and doing without. We do this by choice. For others, it is a daily reality. The We Care Program of Canadian Lutheran World Relief (CLWR) delivers much needed supplies of clothing, hygiene items and school materials, as well as warm blankets and quilts, to men, women and children around the globe.

Thanks to your continuing support, four shipments, weighing nearly 75,000 pounds, were sent in 2008-09. Recipients included people living in refugee camps in Zambia and Mauritania, as well as communities in Gaza and the West Bank.

PRAY

Emergency Relief

Natural disasters such as the catastrophic earthquake that struck Haiti in January affect the lives of hundreds of thousands of people around the globe each year, many of whom have little capacity to rebuild their communities and livelihoods. CLWR offers its supporters a means of responding to many of these emergencies through its membership in the ACT Alliance. ACT Alliance member agencies, including the Lutheran World Federation, respond with immediate aid as well as programs to assist with recovery over the longer term.

PRAY

Pray for the health and safety of those affected by and responding to natural disasters.
