

ADULT EDUCATION RESOURCES

Explore learning activities that highlight how climate change affects livelihoods, labour, and local economies. These resources can help your congregation reflect on economic justice and sustainability in light of the Friends of Creation challenge.

- Consider offering the Bible Study provided.
- Host a discussion focused on economics, equity, and the environment.
 - Suggested reading:
 - Living Through Crisis by Lake Chad: Violence, Labor and Resources – Alessio Iocchi
 - A Good War: Mobilizing Canada For The Climate Emergency – Seth Klein
 - Additional resource:
 - Water, Holy Water – Creation Justice Ministries (theological reflections on water, justice, and economy)
 - <https://www.creationjustice.org/waterholywater.html>
- Watch and discuss a video or short documentary.
 - Suggested viewing:
 - Lake Chad: The World's Most Complex Humanitarian Disaster? – Al Jazeera (YouTube)
 - Women, Work and Climate – UN Women (YouTube)
 - The True Cost – documentary about fast fashion, labour, and sustainability