

ADULT EDUCATION RESOURCES

Explore peace-themed learning activities that connect your congregation to the Friends of Creation challenge. Use the options below to spark conversation, deepen awareness, and reflect together on how climate change and peacebuilding go hand in hand. These resources are designed for adult education settings such as discussion groups, workshops, or after-worship learning sessions:

- Consider offering the Bible Study provided.
- Offer a book discussion with a focus on peace and climate action.
  - Suggested reading:
    - Following Jesus in a Warming World: A Christian Call to Climate Action – Kyle Meyaard-Schaap
    - Saving Us: A Climate Scientist's Case for Hope and Healing in a Divided World – Katharine Hayhoe
- Offer a movie night and discussion.
  - Suggested documentaries and videos:
    - The Letter: A Message for Our Earth (YouTube – featuring Pope Francis & global voices)
    - The Ants & the Grasshopper (2021 – climate and justice through a Malawian activist's story)
    - Pray the Devil Back to Hell (2008 – peacebuilding and women's leadership in Liberia)
