

Our Tiny Hearts scene this year was drawn by Winnipeg artist Farideh Saffari. Around Lake Chad, the climate is changing and things have gotten very hard for farmers. Everything in this scene is part of a big project we're doing together to make their land healthy again! You can find out more at clwr.org/nbs, and you can find details on how to enter the colouring contest at clwr.org/colourcontest.